

LDF Campground and Tribal Landing Boat Launch Policy and Procedures

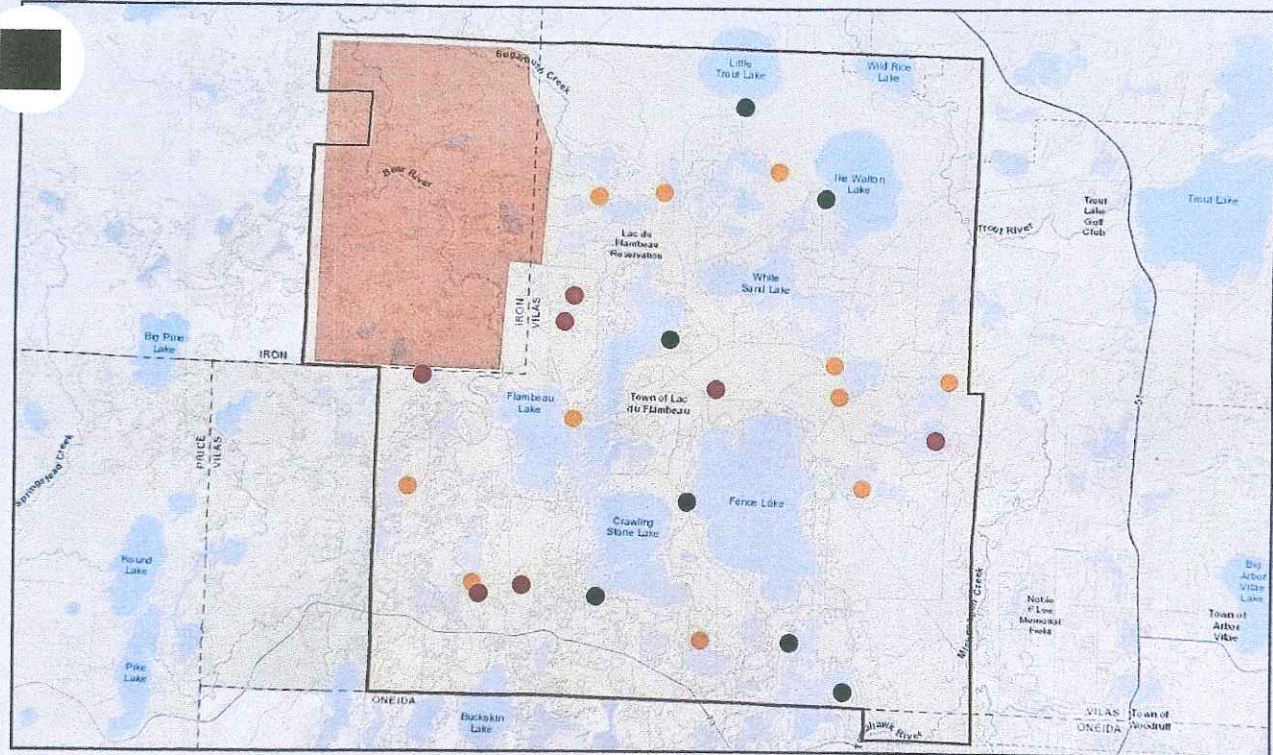

1. All access (unless an enrolled member of the Lac du Flambeau Tribe) to the Lac du Flambeau Campground Boat Launch requires a launch pass that can be purchased in person at the campground office, the Ojibwe Market, or Natural Resources. Tribal boat landings that require a pass can also be purchased at the locations listed above.
2. Those wishing to purchase a pass can do either as a 3 day pass which is $25, or as a seasonal pass which is $60. Business passes need to be purchased separate from personal use (Dock Installers, Guides, Rental Companies, etc.). Businesses must purchase a onetime pass for the season for $350. Residential season passes can be purchased for $40 as long as they show proof of residency in Lac du Flambeau.
3. 3 Day passes will expire three days from the date indicated on the pass provided to the customer. Seasonal passes are honored until the season's close and will have a pass that specifically indicates it is a seasonal pass.
4. When applying for a pass, we will require the name of purchasing party, address, license plate number, and date at the time of application.
5. After receiving all the proper information and payment, the campground staff will log all the data into our tracking system to ensure that the information on file reflects accordingly. Once complete, a permit will be issued to the customer based on what was selected and paid for.
6. Lac du Flambeau Campground and Tribal Boat launches will be continuously monitored by surveillance. Access gained to the boat launch without a proper permit may result in a fine and/or ticket.

Those currently camping with the Lac du Flambeau Campground and Marina will not be required to pay a ramp fee for the campground landing only.
